Tire Rations Reduced Get New "A" Gas Books

By Wee Willie Weeks

The October quota for new passenger tires available for rationing has been reduced by one-fifth, the local rationing board announced today. This reduction reflects the low level of the national stocks.

The new "A" ration book of the October quota is in line with the recent OPA action in raising the mileage requirements on new tires. Since October 1, only those motorists who need to drive over 600 miles per month are eligible for grade "A" tires.

Hereafter, B ration holders were also eligible. "A-8" coupons in the new "A" book becomes valid November 9th at three gallons for a three month period. This represents an allowance of two gallons weekly for home and personal use.

In order to make certain that all car owners receive their new "A" books by the time that the present book expires, the rationing board urges that ration books be filled not later than October 21st.

On November 1st, the Airplane stamp 1 in War Ration Book 3 becomes valid for the purchase of shoes. Stamp No. 18 in the Sugar Books will remain valid indefinitely.

Bureaucrat Delays Bring Bungling In Vegetable Ceilings

Viewing With Alarm By Vegetable Committee Before Ceilings Given

The Florida Vegetable Committee will meet in Clewiston Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to determine a recommended policy for South Florida vegetable growers as to acreage of the several crops.

It is expected that price ceilings and floors, if any, will have been announced by that time, and it can then be determined just what a farmer can grow without losing money.

"Unsympathetic" ceilings "could only mean that the committee would advise crop cuttings in the face of mounting growing, labor and packaging costs.

Bureaucratic bungling is very evident in the fact that ceilings are not yet announced, when time has passed for preparation for fall plantings. Scarcely they want the horse to get out of the stable before plans are drawn to build an inadequate door to keep him within bounds.

The apprehension of the average Glades farmer is due to lack of confidence in the methods and machinery for establishing ceiling prices, and not due to any lack of appreciation of the necessity of inflation preventatives.

If You Want Him To Have That Christmas Package, Get It Mailed Before The 15th Of October

It doesn't make any particular difference WHAT you send him—he will appreciate the thought. If he's 18 or 48 he's subject to home-sickness. If you have a son, brother or sweetheart to send one to pick out somebody's else, and SEND IT BY THE 15th OF OCTOBER, if he's in the Army overseas and BY NOVEMBER 1st, if he's in the NAVY.

Postal regulations: 5 lbs maximum weight; 15 inches in length, and not over 36 inches in length and girth combined. Packages must be marked "Xmas Gifts." Cannot be registered or insured. Not more than one package per week. No alcoholics, matches, lighter fluid, or poisons.

Men 38 to 45 Still Subject To Service If Not Producing

A regulation of the Selective Service, as pointed out recently by officials of State Headquarters, provides that men between the ages of 38 and 45 are subject to induction, if, in the opinion of the Local Board, the war effort will be better served.

Regulations also provide that men who have been transferred to the reserve and allowed to come home for work in war plants or on the farm are subject to reinduction on very short notice if it proven that they are not contributing to the war effort in a sufficient manner.

The keyway granted on men between 38 and 45 is not 30 years of age until six months after his thirty-eighth birthday—may prove effective in preventing absenteeism from farm work, or refusal to work a normal amount of time.

September 15th marked the final day on which men in non-deferrable or non-essential jobs might change over to essential jobs.

Undoubtedly there are a number of persons who changed their work after September 15th from a non-essential to an essential endeavor who are caught by this regulation.

According to reports there have been a number of aged parents who need sons on farms. Of course there is no connection between the draft status of the son and the feebleness of the parents. This change should have been made before September 15th, according to regulations.

3,500 Jamaicans And 1,600 Bahamians Will Receive Labor Strain

The first beans of the season were picked Sunday by Lou Currier and Pete Bros. and those that were sold brought $3.00 for local markets—Miami, Lower East Coast and Tampa. Thursday's beans, in dribbles, sold for $2.00.

It is reported that the yield is very poor and the quality "fair summerbeans." It is a well proven fact that beans do not produce quality nor quantity in the Glades in the summer time.

One ear and one truck load of the Pete beans were shipped unsold.

While there will be a few scattering beans, the best harvested—the real bean harvesting will begin around November 1st.

Labor The labor situation seems to be clearing up somewhat. The Morgant member of the War Food Administration, Lie for over FSA, announces that 1600 Bahamians will be brought into the area to fill orders for approximately 3500 farm workers.

The first contingent of 3500 Jamaicans for the Sugar Company has arrived, and others are expected within the coming two weeks, according to reports.

Reports from northern vegetable centers indicate that the harvest hands are making the outlandish wages here that were made in the Glades and that they are coming back. Then too, the dark colored skin is not readily adaptable to the cold weather which is beginning up there.

CINEMATIC CHATTER

By Malcolm Miller

The biggest attraction of the year, cinematically speaking, will open at the Everglades Theatre this coming Saturday at the Owl Show and run through Sunday-Monday. The attraction is "Sergeant York."

It is the pietization of the life of America's great living hero. Gary Cooper is starred in the title role and Jean Leslie, Walter Brennan, George Tobias, Stanley Ridges, Margaret Wycherly and Ward Bond head the huge and able supporting cast.

On October 8th, 1918, Sgt. Alvin C. York, the Tennessee mountaineer, helped win the First World War with a one-man blitzkrieg against the German army. He performed the most incredible feat of capturing practically single-handed an entire German machine-gun battalion that was holding up the American advance in the Argonne Forest, killing twenty-five of the enemy, taking over 35 machine-guns and bringing in 132 prisoners. "Sergeant York" will be the biggest MUST picture you will mark in your book this year.

For Tuesday-Wednesday offering comes another strong feature that would really hold up for the Sunday-Monday showing. This one is "Background to Danger," which stars George Raft, Sidney Greenstreet and Brenda Marshall. Story concerns G-Men vs. Gestapo and is packed with thrills.

For Thursday-Friday showing comes one that we had advertised some time back and then had to substitute due to reasons beyond our control. This one is "High Explosives," which stars Chester Morris, Jean Parker and Harry Sullivan. Story is about those fellows who transport high explosives in trucks, and is loaded with high adventure and breath taking thrills.

Short subjects and the current news round out these mid-week programs.

For the Saturday offering comes Johnny Mack Brown and his pals offering "Tenting Tonight on the Old Camp Ground."

Sewanee and St. Mary's rivers. The proposed induction of pre Pearl Harbor papas has caused Selective Service Headquarters to advise Boards to make every effort to weed out single men, married men, widowers, children and parents who lost their 3 A standing because of the job they are filling.

Following these instructions Boards are unearthing registrants sufficient to give some future leeway for recognized papas who are in essential or critical occupations.

boys must go through, he remarked "the loosest screw on a plane is the one in the pilot's seat—his pilot."

Pointing out that the casualty list is greater in some schools than on the front, he attributes to the fact that students are usually dazed boys who forget or deliberately do things the instructors say they shouldn't do. Failure of the plane is not the cause in many instances of these crashes. "It's pilot error," he says.

The Rotarians were entertaining the Lions as the result of two soft ball games in which the Rotarians were terribly outclassed and swamped in a score.
